Save Church Road Post Office

Don't let Labour close Church Road Post Office

Local Lib Dem campaigner Serena Tierney is fighting to save Church Road Post Office.

Our local post office is one of 2500 set to be closed by Labour.

Local Lib Dem Cllr Eileen Balsdon said, "Church Road Post Office is vital to our local community. Many local people rely on the services it provides. We must fight to save it."

Thousands of post offices have already been closed by Labour AND Conservative Governments.

Please sign our petition to back our campaign to save our local post office.

Going, going, gone

- Britain's disappearing post offices

Labour's new plans to close 2500 post offices will hit local communities across Britain.

That's nearly 1 in 5 post offices to close.

These new closures are on top of the 7500 post offices already closed by Conservative and Labour Governments.

The closures will mean long journeys for many just to pick up a pension or send a parcel.

Local people deserve much better!

Labour

Labour have already closed 4000 post offices in Britain

A RECORD OF SHAME

Conservative

The last Conservative Government closed 3500 post offices

It's time someone stood up for our post offices

3

STEPS TO SAVE OUR POST OFFICES

1. Invest £2 billion in post office network - open new branches where needed.
2. The Post Office freed from Royal Mail restrictions to let it develop new business.
3. A new legal requirement for the Government to maintain the local Post Office network.
